Defendant

ENTRY OF SEALING/EXPUNGEMENT

The Defendant having applied to the Court for sealing/expungement of record of conviction, and the court being sufficiently informed, finds the applicant is an eligible offender as defined in O.R.C. §2953.32.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that all official records pertaining to this case shall be sealed/expunged, and indexed references thereto shall be deleted, except as otherwise provide in O.R.C §2953.32. The proceedings of the case shall be considered not to have occurred and the conviction for _____ shall be sealed/expunged, subject to the exceptions set forth in Ohio Revised Code Chapter 2953.

It is further ordered that no officer or employee for the State, or any political subdivision thereof, except as authorized by Division (D) and (E) of §2953.32 of the Ohio Revised Code, shall release, disseminate or make available for any purpose involving employment, bonding, or licensing in connection with any business, trade or profession to any person, or to any department, agency, or other instrumentality of the State's Government of any political subdivision thereof, any information or other data concern any arrest, indictment, trial hearing, conviction, or correctional supervision.
